Nutrition Education

Educational seminars are conducted throughout the year by a Registered Dietician for participants of the senior center. Individual and group counseling may be arranged (for those with no access to such counseling through their physicians) to further one's understanding of nutritionally balance meals and special diets required by health conditions.

Source URL (retrieved on 2013-06-19 06:33): http://www.miamisprings-fl.gov/elderlyservices/nutrition-education